RYAN TAKES EMBEZZLER

Captures C. T. Travelstead, Fugitive For Whom $100 Reward is Offered.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan ran down and captured a much wanted embezzler Sunday morning after trailing him and a woman companion to a resort in the foothills of El Verano. The man is C.T. Travelstead, charged with felony embezzlement in Fremont, Nebraska, and is the party whom it is alleged got away with a valuable diamond ring at Clementi's last week where gun play followed the card game in which the diamond was won by Travelstead. The winner of the rock dropped out of sight in the midst of the melee, however, and not long after his get-away, Sheriff Petray notified Deputy Ryan that a man answering the description of the missing visitor was wanted on an embezzlement charge in Nebraska and that there was a $100 reward for his capture. Ryan got busy on the case and was soon on the trail of Travelstead. He located him at a quiet French boarding house near El Verano and Sunday morning surprised the fugitive who had kept close under cover and was calmly shaving when Ryan stepped into his room.

Displaying his star, the deputy sheriff informed Travelstead that the sheriff wanted to see him. The prisoner made no effort to deny his identity and was taken to the county jail by Ryan.

Travelstead is declared to be a regular society dandy and with his suave manner and elegant attire, made a pronounced hit around the resort section prior to his trouble.

RANCHERS INSTALL PLANTING MACHINE

Wattriss and Serres of Agua Caliente have purchased and received a Bemis transplanter which will be quite a factor in setting out tomato plants this season and doing similiar work in the modern scientific way. It plants 4000 an hour and waters the young plants being set down.

Messrs Wattriss and Serres will plant 50 acres to tomatoes and the transplanter will do the work.

TANK GREETED BY BIG CROWD

The Victory Tank which was in this city last Monday has been playing to tremendous crowds during its tour of the Sacramento and San Joaquin Valleys. It is one of the famous whippets with which Pershing expected to break the Hindenburg line.

The tank began its tour at Bakersfield on April 21. Since that time it has been moving northward thru the main towns of San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys. The last week of the campaign is to be spent in Napa, Sonoma, Marin, Contra Costa and Alameda counties. The tank is transported on the mammoth Mack truck especially arranged for this trip so that the tank can be readily unloaded for the numerous street parades and demonstrations in which it takes part.

Sergeant E. H. Henderson, who is one of the two veteran tank men on the Victory tank, has lived a life that fairly bristles with excitement. He has seen service in two wars, and during the period between the Spanish-American struggle and the present World conflict has found time to become an expert driver of racing automobiles and an air pilot of recognized abilit.y

His companion in the Victory Tank is Private (First Class) Ernest Watt Watt hails from Cheynenne, Wyoming, the home of the broncho busters.

The Sonoma meeting was addressed by Frank Sprague who introduced the tank men to a large and interested assemblage on Sonoma's streets. The school children and many autos paraded with the tank, escorting it to and from the depot.

Arthur Fisk has wired from Camp Meritt, New York to his wife Marjorie Buchan Fisk, that he has arrived safe from over seas. The young engineer will no doubt be home very shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Eraldi who returned home from their honeymoon were given a big time last Friday by their friends and a 3 piece jazz orchestra from Santa Rosa furnished music for the merry makers.

Dr. A. M. Thomson and daughter, Celia, went to San Francisco Monday accompaning the doctor's mother that far and seeing her off for her home in Missouri.

OUR V QUOTA HALF MADE

State Home Goes Over Top. High School Campaigns Districts and Final Drive For $123,400 Is On Today.

Sonoma Valley's record in the Victory Loan will be known tonight up to Thursday, but $49,750 of the $123,400 quota had been subscribed with but little more reported.

The State Home went "over the top".

El Verano raised $1050 after the school rally Monday night when Messrs Bogle and Barr ,the latter a wounded soldier, made a rousing appeal to American Citizenship.

The High School has assigned the various districts to student workers who are out for 30 per cent or better of the quotas in each. Helmets and medals will be given as prizes. If the students get 30 per cent in each district, Sonoma valley may get her quota. We must get it. This is the last day.

Vice President and Cashier N. J. Heggie of the First National Bank when interviewed on the Victory Loan situation said that Sonoma must by all menas "go over the top" and the First National stands ready to take its full share of subscription at the finish if the other bank will do likewise.

CLUB LADIES HONOR SOLDIER

Glen Ellen Womans Improvement Club Presents Milton Sobbe, Wounded Hero, With Handsome Emblem Last Saturday Night.

The Glen Ellen Womans Improvement Club dance at Pancrazi Hall last Saturday night was marked by the presentation by the grateful and loyal women of that organization of a costly and handsome emblem of appreciation to Milton Sobbe who lost his arm in the war.

The emblem which will be treasured by the recipient was a gold watch charm, a replica of the sleeve button worn on the coat of the soldier boy hero and on either side of the crossed guns of the emblem, were handsome diamonds and the number of his regiment and company in contrasting shades of gold. The back of the charm is suitably inscribed and bears the date of the presentation.

In the midst of the ball festivities, Mrs. O. Gordenker, president of the Club, confered the honor upon the young soldier and in a heart felt speech, voiced the sentiments of her organization and her own feelings of gratitude at the sacrifice made in the great world's war by Glen Ellen's favorite son. Sobbe responded with appropriate remarks in which he declared it was a greater honor to him to have the watch charm confered by the ladies of his old home town than if General Pershing had pinned a medal upn him.

Dancing and merry making then continued in the handsomely decorated hall where the proud service flag of the community was draped and with its border of springtime roses, was a fitting decorative feature of this long to be remembered occasion.

An immense crowd was present and the Glen Ellen Womans Improvement Club members were as always delightful hostesses and at midnight served a fine supper.

Frank Engler was scheduled to arrive home with his army unit last night in San Francisco where a big welcome was planned. He has been enjoying the sights in and around New York prior to starting for home.

George Moskowite, whose brother Isadore, was killed in the war and who has been in a Canadian training camp, is now home with his folks at Schellville.

BRILLIANT EVENT AT O. E. S. THURSDAY AND ANOTHER ONE COMING

Past Matrons and Patrons night at the Valley of the Moon Chapter O. E. S. Thursday was a brilliant affair as arranged by Worthy Matron Burmester. Many out-of-town visitors were present. Prof and Mrs. Golton were initiated and Mrs. Volquardsen and daughter affiliated with the Chapter. There was vocal music including a quartette and splendid solo by Mr. Sokalay, also monalogue by Mr. Salb of Petaluma. Refreshments in the banquet hall decorated in garlands and Chinese lanterns was the finale of this fine affair. About 80 were present.

A ball to be given by the Chapter at the Womans clubhouse on May 27th was decided upon by the Chapter. It will be one of the swellest affairs of the social season and the public will be included.

THREE PIECE ORCHESTRA FOR DANCE TO-NIGHT

The Womans clubhouse will be a scene of a social dance to-night to be given by the club. The dance takes the place of the dancing school the evening class having been given up. All beginners however will be instructed and provided partners by a committee and the floor manager. A three piece orchestra will furnish the music tonight and a fine crowd is expected as many tickets have been sold.

WAR PAL HIS BEST MAN

Fred Nonella and His Comrade, Fred Wiseman Went Over The Top In France and To The Altar Together Here.

That every cloud has a silver lining, even a war cloud, is illustrated by the wedding of Fred Nonella who when he took as his bride, Miss Gertrude Walsh at St. Brigid's church, San Francisco, last week, had for his best man Fred Wiseman, comrade in arms and partner of many battles during the recent war. The boys went overseas together and participated in several battles, Nonella and Wiseman going "over the top" five times. They were both slightly wounded and when hit by shrapnel, thought for a second that one was playfully throwing something at the other They quickly found out differently however and were in a shell hole together some time before getting first aid. While the shells were falling around them, Nonella told Wiseman of the girl he left behind him in the valley of the moon and of the wedding bells that would ring out if he ever got home alive.

The happy prediction was fulfilled a week ago Thursday and Wiseman was there as best man, together with Miss Doris Nonella, the groom's sister who was bridesmaid. The bride wore a pretty gray georgette crepe gown and a white picture hat. The bridesmaid had a becoming dress of gray crepe de chine and her hat was a white milan sailor.

After the service at the church, there was a deluge of rice but both Nonella and Wiseman declared it to be the best shrapnel they had experienced for many a day. The bridal party then went to a popular San Francisco cafe where they enjoyed a big banquet.

The groom has resumed his former position as captain of a dredger and will take his bride to the San Joaquin valley to reside after a honeymoon spent at Camp Lewis and other state of Washington points of interest. Nonella's ex-boss met him when he came in with his regiment and made him promise to re-enter his employ.

"My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty."

Which Road Are We Going To Travel?

THE PERMANENT highway bond election this month will be a test of the progressive and ambitious citizenship within the confines of Sonoma county. We now have an opportunity to go on record and the eyes of the state will be focused on the result. Have you confidence in Sonoma county's future? Has Sonoma county the elements which are worth developing? If the bond election carries we will herald our faith in this beautiful section to all California and the world and not only will people be attracted here by the good roads we will build, but they will also be induced to settle in Sonoma county on account of the abstract demonstration that we "have the goods" and are laying the foundation of a future in which it is first class reasoning to participate. For land values will climb with this bond election brought to a successful issue and early comers will profit.

There is no longer, as in the era of horses, a method of good economy and fairly good roads. In this day of automobiles, there can be only two kinds of roads, good and bad, and bad roads cost more for they knock values and keep the county which tolerates them in the rut, which is their stock in trade.

Make a pledge today and appoint yourself a committee of one to get the voters out on May 24th and put Sonoma county on the map of progress and on the road to prosperity.

Agitation Invites Destruction and Must Cease

THE RIOTS and red flag demonstrations attended with bloodshed and death in many of our cities on May day goes to prove that Bolshevism is not confined to Russia or European centers, but its infamy is rearing its head right here in our own country. It should make us all realize that a league of law and order is necessary as a League of Nations and that where civilization and decency is challenged by destructionists, that it behooves all good citizens to stand shoulder to shoulder and rout the least semblance of the diabolic effort to overthrow governments and society in general. When we realize the enormity of so-called soviet standards, which are really no standards but degradation and when we read of the moral chaos which Bolshevists aim to bring about, it should cement our people in closer bond, in order to mass the attack on barbarity and vandalism. It should shame those who have sought to divide our own people on issues, trivial and mean, and have aimed to stir up dissatisfaction and antagonism because idealism or the millenium was not being realized according to their methods or fashion.

The day is here when we must banish this spirit and count as dangerous to the social fabric, any agitator, whether he be the labor union spellbinder who prepares the soil for the Bolsheviki seed or the prohibition crank who starts internal trouble and divides the country over an issue like "wet" or "dry". We need a united, harmonious citizenship, working along constructive lines in order to make our country impregnable against the sinster inroads of real danger, immorality, vice and licentiousness. The menace is all about us. Imaginary problems or pastime reformative measures grew out of a period of security which the world no longer enjoys and the energy which went into them must be diverted at once into real channels of utility, necessary for the protection and safeguarding of duly constituted governments. The bulwarks of civilization will otherwise be undermined and with a country divided against itself on trivial issues, the work of the destructionist will be made that much easier. He will not fail to make the most of the situation. We need broader vision than we have had of late. The day of narrow puritanism must end here and now. "United we stand, divided we fall."

SLIENCE would have been golden in 'banker Brush's case but instead he prefered to show the yellower streak by trying to excuse his theft, explain it and make a bid for sympathy in a long statement to the public. Ten years in prison will give him ample time to think it over and the sentence may make a few more plungers stop and think before the chasm of ruin yawns for them.

DRYING CHOICE WINE GRAPES WILL OBLITERATE CHARACTER OF THEM

When interviewed concerning the drying of wine grapes as a panacea for prohibition, Mr. Walter Bundschu of the extensive Rhine Farm vineyards in Sonoma valley, growers of many of the choicest types of dry wine grapes, was not enthusiastic over the solution offered even though the viticultural commission believes that by that process much of California's grape crop can be salvaged.

Mr. Bundschu explains that choice wine grapes of the five different varieties grown in the Gundlach-Bundschu vineyards would if dried lose all their fine character for dried grapes make but one sort of wine and that uniformily inferior with little good color and no boquet. The famous vintages of Rhine Farm have been noted for qualities which will be entirely destroyed by the drying process and therefore have no more value than the meanest wine grape that grows. Mr. Bundschu points out that here and in other bay counties sun dried grapes are out of the question and it would be necessary to have big evaporating plants to handle the crop. This method being more costly, growers here could not compete with the natural dried grapes of Fresno county for instance.

Sonoma valley wine grapes have been famous producers of dry wines while Fresno has always grown sweet wine grapes and produced cheaper wine grapes because of the use of seconds from the raisin industry. It is predicted that with European countries getting back to normal and producing wine that the demand in this country will be nothing in two or three years as it appears here now and therefore dried grapes would practically be valueless.

It seems that one by one the panaceas for prohibition are knocked into a cocked hat.

The Gundlach-Bundschu vineyards which prohibition will practically confiscate were planted in the foothills of this valley two generations ago and have produced some of the finest wines the world has ever seen. Noted for rare varieties and scientific culture the wine grapes of these vine yards have yielded the owners a hand some revenue and won for them honors and prizes both at home and in foreign countries. All of this will be nullified by "dry" legislation's enforcement.

WON SECOND PRIZE IN CONTEST

THE FOLLOWING ON THE VICTORY LOAN WON THE SECOND PRIZE OF $2 IN THE INDEX-TRIBUNE CONTEST

Fellow Citizens:

The government of the United States is calling on you to do your share in putting through the Fifth Liberty Loan, called the Victory Loan. Millions of dollars are needed to help compensate for the cancelled contracts of large firms supplying this country with food, ammunition, and material needed for the continuation of the war. Money is needed to balance the great cost of the war. Money is needed to pay our soldiers, and to feed and clothe them. Money is needed to safely return them to this country.

Will you "foot the bill' and leave a clean slate for your children, or are you going to leave a debt on their shoulders to be paid by them and future generations? It was your war for your freedom and you should finish the job. If this loan is not sufficiently supported taxation will be inevitable and your children will be obliged to pay what you do not. You lose nothing and gain everything. You receive the principal and 4¾ per cent interest inside of four years. Liberty Bonds are a gilt-edged investment, supported by a democratic government and backed by one million people.

Seventy-two thousand of our boys willingly gave their lives for democracy. They paid the price of victory. They gave their lives to insure our safety. Shall the others come home to an unpatriotic country whose citizens are miserly to the bone? Or shall they come to a country that is rightfully proud of her men and women. Citizens who lend their all to back their boys. One year ago we would have given everything we had to insure victory. The odds were against us. The flower of German army was hurling victorious forces against our boys and their allies. The boys of American stopped them. Today our government is facing an army of debt that must be met as bravely as our boys met, turned, and routed the Prussian hordes. Men gave their lives. their limbs and their all to the cause of justice. We are expected to sacrifice nothing, we are called upon only to lend to our utmost and see it through.

Friends and patriotic citizens, do your utmost, put the Victory Loan over the top, as our boys went over the top in the battle of the Argonne Forest. Buy Victory Bonds! Your greatest so called sacrifice is in comparison to a soldier's life what an ant-hill is to a mountain. Buy Bonds prove to the world that the American people are willing to pay the price of feedom.

GEORGE ANGOVE WHO WAS STRETCHER BEARER IN WAR CAME HOME SATURDAY

George Angove, who was a stretcher bearer during some of the big battles over in France, and had many thrilling experiences, came up from the Presidio last Saturday night and surprised his folks. Mr. and Mrs. Angove had been down to San Francisco but upon being told that George and his contingent of the army would go to Camp Kearney to be mustered out, they returned home. The following day the troop train arrived in San Francisco so the happy reunion and meeting did not take place as anticipated. However there was great rejoicing in the home when father and mother greeted their son here Saturday evening. He stayed over Sunday and later came home for good after being discharged at the Presidio. George was a musician with one of the big military bands "over there." His friends are delighted to have him back safe and well for he is one of Sonoma's most popular boys.

DEATH OF CARL ROSENTHAL WELL KNOWN CIGAR MAN

A few years ago he suffered an acute heart attack and his life was despaired of, but he rallied and was apparently in the best of health when here a few weeks ago.

The funeral took place from St. Josephs church in Alameda Tuesday.

Mrs. John Vassen and daughter Virginia are here on a visit to Mrs. Vassen's mother Mrs. Chase. Mr. Vassen's health is poor and he is traveling in Oregon and seeking rest and recreation.

Mesdames Freck, Cliff, Baines and Joost motored to Sausalito over the last week end and visited with Mrs. Gates, a former El Verano resident.

Carl Goodwin who saw service in France where he was in four big battles was up last week from San Jose on a visit to her cousin, Miss Nellie Peterson.

Our job here at home is not over as long as there is one American soldier overseas—as long as one dollar is needed to finish the task.

Nearly a million Yanks are still "Over There" guarding what they won.

STICK WITH THE VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN.

FINISH the Job is good business advice and Sonoma's business and professional men endorse the Victory Loan and believe that the patriotic people of Sonoma Valley who aided the Government all through the War, should now loan their money to pay the bills it cost Uncle Sam for Victory. FINE TIME AT CHRISTENING

Maurel Villa Scene of Festivities and Big Dinner Last Sunday.

If the joyousness which crowned the christening day of little Lorraine Guiral, at Maurel Villa Sunday, is an indication of the sunshine which will fill her life, there are pleasant days ahead, for the little orphan whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Guiral were victims if the influenza last fall in San Francisco. After the christening ceremonies at St. Francis church, relatives and friends of the children gathered at the Maurel home where a splendid dinner of many courses was served and where good wishes, speechmaking and song marked the pleasant gathering. The dinner was par excellence. The menu consisted of soup, oysters on the half shell, young rabbit, green peas, chicken, salad, dessert, cheese, black coffee and two kinds of choice Sonoma valley wines and champagne.

The Marsellaise, Mandeleon, The Star Spangled Banner and many patriotic and popular songs and choruses were sung, Monseur Pechoultres being one of the talented vocalists, and his daughter, Alfonse, a dainty little Miss, also contributed songs and Mr. Chas. J. Fisette delighted the company with comic stories, songs and imitations of Harry Lauder and other celebrities.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurel and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Malet, were highly complimented on the splendid time in honor of the children, and much gratitude was expressed by their uncle who was up from San Francisco for the happy occasion.

The children's father, who died the same week as did their mother of influenza, was chef at the Poodle Dog restaurant, San Francisco.

The two eldest children, Bertha and Edmund Guiral, go to school here while baby Lorraine has become the idol of the Maurel household.

Those who participated in the christening and dinner Sunday were; Mr. and Mde. Alex Vayssie, Mr. J. Vayssie, Mde. Cervieres, Mde. Gaston Marty and family, Mr. Rene Vayssie, Mr. and Mde. Giraud, Mr. and Mde Casamatta and infant, Mr. and Mde. Gemin and son, Mr. and Mde. Cabournel, Mr. and Mde. Pechoultres and daughter, Mr. and Mde. Olivier, Mr. Louis Ferrero, Mr. and Mde Martin Rey, Mr. H. Revel, Mde. Rossignol, Mr. and Mde. P. Burg, Messrs Ed and Jules Guiral, Mr. and Mde. Eugene Malet, Mr. and Mrs. C. Fisette, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphy, Mr. and Mde. J. Maurel and the children.

ACCIDENT TO TANK TUESDAY IN PETALUMA

While the driver of the Victory tank was backig it on the N. W. P. platform Tuesday, preparing to load it on the truck on which it is conveyed to the different towns, the clutch failed to hold and the tank went over the side of the platform, standing on end. The driver, seeing that he could not control the machine, jumped just in time, and escaped injury. The gear of the engine was in mesh and the engine was killed when the driver jumped. The machine fell in such a manner that it was impossible to enter and start the engine. A large tractor was used in getting the tank on the truck. It was about 5 o'clock when the task was completed. The accident delayed the schedule.

Lois Sanderson, grammar school student, while watching the tank performing in the Golden Eagle yards, did not get out of the way in time, when the tank made a wide turn, and was struck by the rear end of the machine. She was knocked down but was uninjured. -Petaluma Argus

JACOB YENNI SAW COMRADE KILLED IN THE WAR

Jacob Yenni, who has lately returned from France and saw hard fighting, is being warmly welcomed home and has been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity since his return. Jacob Yenni is the son of John Yenni, the well known dairyman of Schellville. Here is what a Petaluma paper says of his terrible experiences

"J. Yenni of Sonoma valley who recently returned from war duty overseas, motored to this city Sunday to visit his aunts, Mrs. V. Riedi and Mrs. E. Marti, and was accompanied by a number of his relatives, a delightful day being spent in this city. He told many of his exciting experiences and the harrowing sights he saw on duty at the battlefront and stated that he saw Private S. Hansen of this city when he was killed in action. He was struck by a shell and both legs were blown off and he was otherwise badly injured. He lived but a short time after receiving the terrible wounds.

Mr. Yenni is happy to be back in this country again, safe and well after the fighting and hardships"

DOLLAR EGG PRODUCTION FOR THE COMING WINTER

Correspondent of the New York Produce News Wires Paper Fresh Eggs on Pacific Coast Are Sure to Reach Top Mark This Winter With a Strong Demand

The New York Produce News of April 19, just received on the coast contains an article on "Dollar Egg Prospect" which will be read with much interest by both producers and consumers. The article follows:

Los Angeles, Apr. 18—"At present prices we are storing no eggs," said General Manager Stanley of the Poultry producers of Southern California. This about tells the situation on the Pacific coast—from one angle—that of the producers who have now ample facilities to keep the market stable by putting away eggs whenever there is any drop. On the other hand Swift and Armour are storing. The Wilson people say they are not doing anything ,but outside gossip has it that Wilson will have the eggs before the end of the deal. Cudahy says that they are out—and here again the Street has it the other way. One thing is certain, the meat barons have about concluded that they will have to pay the price on the theory that the rollar today is worth only 50c of the dollar a year or so ago.

Pacific coast eggs are being put away steadily and at the highest price on record. Can it be possible that storage extras costing 47½c with 2c storage, 1½c interest, and 1c depreciation, making an actual cost of 52c, can be sold in the fall at a profit? The jobber will put them out around 62c, but more likely 65c. And that means the storage egg must sell for 70c average ni order to show the lowest of profits. Which in turn calls for 75c fresh market at the time storage is moving.

Can it be done? Well, whether it can or not, the big ones are going in and the Pacific coast coolers are steadily filling. That si, they are filling when the current demand will allow of any surplus, whic is not often. Reports from Seattle and Portland show that the public has finally woke up to the fact that 50c eggs today are cheaper than meat. So all along the line one gets the report "local consumption heavy and demand strong and taking all receipts with but little change except with a strong premium to get enough for storage."

And thus comes the fulfillment of prophecy by one who came out of the East to observe Pacific coast conditions at first hand for the benefit of the Eastern trade as well as the trade of the entire country. It was in November, 1916, when the News discussed dollar eggs and at the same time predicted that "California Whites" would be quoted on the New York market. The latter has come to pass—and the record prices of eggs since 1916 have been at times mighty close to the dollar mark. The war price fixing program of the Federal government alone prevented the dollar egg the past season. The lid is off now and with the increased buying capacity of the public alone with the 50c dollar there is every reason now to expect the dollar egg during the ensuing winter.

Pacifiv coast prices of course must always be figured on a basis of at least 5c doz. over New York of Chicago, that being the differential in the way of freight. This should be remembered when reading Pacific coast quotations.

In spite of the high prices the Los Angeles storage on Apr. 3 showed 26-000 cases against 34,000 a year ago. On Apr. 10 they showed 34,000 against 41,000 a year ago. Thus it will be seen that storage is going merrily on. San Francisco shows about the same proportion. On Apr. 2, there were 31-000 cases in the colers, but this was 16,000 short of the same date last year Last year's report an increae and the difference will be pretty near wiped out by the end of the month.

The dollar egg, (fresh market, of course) is one of the certainties for the turn of the year. It is well that the trade should be prepared for this and not be surprised when it comes. There are thousands of hens less than a year ago, the demand for poultry is strong, the poultry owner sees where he can cash in at the present live poultry market and clear a far better profit that to feed the hens and take chances on feed going higher

And through it all the law of supply and demand must finally rule in the way of price fixing—now that Mr. Priebe and others have stepped aside.

WILL NAME ROAD FOR GEN. PERSHING

Secretary Watkins of the State Automobile Association Reports on Success of Operations and New Links Highway Will Unite.

General Persning by cable has sanctioned the use of his name in connection with the proposed ocean-to-ocean highway, from New York to San Francisco, via Nevada.

The receipt of General Pershing's permission to name the proposed transcontinental highway in his honor has stimulated interest in the new route, which was mapped out at a recent conference of good roads boosters and automobile men held in Lincoln, Nebraska.

The new road, according to D. E. Watkins, Secretary-Manager of the California State Automobile Association, who represented California at the conference, will be the nation's best transcontinental road.

"The new highway," Watkins said yesterday, "has been routed to include the strongest links of the existing three transcontinental routes and will bring support to those sections needing repair.

"From New York to Terre Haute, Indiana, the Pershing highway will follow the Pikes Peak ocean-to-ocean highway to St. Joseph, Missouri. Through Missouri, it will run over the Washington highway. The Lumbo Flats on the Lincoln highway are eliminated in Nebraska, the new road striking this highway between Grant Island and Kearney.

"From this point west the road is routed along the Lincoln highway through Wyoming. Many pledges were made at the conference at Lincoln of improvements. From Salt Lake the road runs over the Wendover cut-off to Winnemucca, Lovelock, Wadsworth and to Reno, reducing the distance between this latter city and Salt Lake by thirty or forty miles."

Through Nevada the highway will follow the Humboldt river, parallel the railroads and pass through the densely populated sections. Directors of the Pershing Historic Highway Association will soon be named. Each state will name a director and with the perfection of organization a nation-wide campaign will be launched.

MOTOR BUSES IN SONOMA VALLEY

Popularity of Resorts Is to Be Increased by More Frequent Transportation, Is Plan.

Sonoma, May 3.—Local and outside capital is beginning to see the great possibilities of better transportation facilities than have been offered heretofore between San Rafael and the famous mineral springs resorts of Sonoma Valley, and consequently two groups of men are working on plans whereby a line of motor buses will be operated on a convenient schedule between here and Marin county to connect at San Rafael with the hourly electric trains to Sausalito.

It is reported that the live wire promoters locally are James Baines, Fred Boynton and Steve Anazitos.

J. L. King, formerly of Santa Cruz is also figuring on a bus line service in conjunction with President Van Damme of the Richmond-San Rafael Ferry company, who is now a property owner of Sonoma Valley and keenly interested in the progress of this favorite section. Mr. King is to appear before the Railroad Commission and submit his new transportation service plan and have the board establish a passenger rate.

Continued improvement in the road conditions over the Black Point cut-off state highway route is linking us closer with the bay section and will be a big factor in popularizing Sonoma Valley, undoubtedly retarded heretofore by the poor service of the railroad companies with their unfortunate schedules and increasing rates.

Both Brown and Riel said they would not take the risk involved.

The District Attorney's office decided, therefore, to bury the Fickert bomb in some secluded spot among the sand hills of San Francisco outskirts.

NAVAL MEN WILL AID BY BUYING THE BONDS

From Coblenz, Germany, Secretary Daniels cabled to Rear Admiral T. J. Cowie, navy Victory loan officer, the following message to be flashed around the world to all ships and stations of the American navy.

"The world recognizes that the navy was not only the first line of defense in this great war but in convoying, and transporting troops it made possible the coming to Europe of the two million Americans whose valor was one of the largest contributions in winning the war. I feel sure that every man who has the honor of wearing the naval uniform will sooner or later wish to have the privilege of being in the first line of defense also in subscribing to the utmost of their ability to the Victory loan.

"War is a costly and grim business. The navy made its sacrifice at sea. It will now increase the public gratitude by leading in paying the cost of those who gave their lives and in caring for those who were disabled in the great struggle.

"I therefore appeal to every man in the service to subscribe for at least one bond that when the roll of honor is printed the name of the navy men will be among the foremost. Let us by actions say to all America 'watch at navy.'"

YOSEMITE VALLEY HIGHWAY FROM MERCED TO EL PORTAL

Million Dollars to Be Raised by Public in Addition to $700,000 From State and Federal Resources With Which to Construct Scenic Paved Highway.

San Francisco, Apr., 28—Under a plan devised by the Yosemite Valley Highway Association which is sponsoring a movement for a paved scenic highway from Merced to El Portal, Yosemite's gateway, motorists will be enabled to enter Yosemite National park every day of the year.

Yosemite Valley now is accessible to the motorist only in the summer season. Existing highways attain such high altitudes that it is almost imposible to reach Yosemite during the winter months because of the depth of snow.

Yosemite's winter activities are said by members of the Yosemite Highway Association to exceed its summer lures, Winter sports such as ski-sleighing and ice skating may be enjoyed on the floor of the Valley during December, Jaunary, February and the greater portion of March.

Believing that the Yosemite National Park should be thrown open to the world the year round the Highway Commission is furthering the prospect plan. Its maximum elevation, as shown by estimates and maps drawn by engineers of the State Highway Commission, will be 2965 feet. This elevation is below the snow line.

Chairman Rudolph Spreckels of the Yosemite Valley Highway Association says a comparison with other roads now reaching the Yosemite proves the desirablity of the Merced-El Paso Highway. The Wawona Roard attains an elevation of 6300 feet and the highest point on the Big Oak Flat road is 7200 feet.

The proposed highway will cost $1,-700,000. Seven hundred thousand of the total needed will be available from the Federal and State sources, leaving $1,000,000 to be raised by citizens of California.

This sum will be raised by the sale of certificates. Each certificate will cost $5.00. The certificate will be good for automobile admission to Yosemite National Park for any one of several succeeding seasons, according to announcement made by Director of National Parks Stephen T. Mather. Automobile admission to Yosemite is now $5.00. Consequently, members of the Association say, purchasers of certificates are only advancing money they otherwise would pay as the entrance fee required by the Government.

No money will be available for the construction of a paved highway, such as proposed, from the treasury of the State of California, for many years. It is felt that this highway should be constructed at the earliest date possible. The Yosemite Valley Highway Association proposes to raise the $1,000,000 still needed during a campaign to open May 22, and conclude June 7. According to Chairman Spreckels as soon as the money is on hand construction work will be undertaken. The building of the high way will be left to the State Highway Commission. The only function of the Yosemite Valley Highway Association will be to raise the money.

Hundreds of returned soldiers and sailors will be employed on the road construction work.

The route has been selected by the State Highway Association. The highway will extend from Merced to Mariposa, a distance of 40 miles From Mariposa it will traverse the foothill region reaching the canyon of the Merced river at Briceburg. Following up the canyon it will reach its terminus at El Portal. From El Portal to the floor of Yosemite Valley an excellent road is maintained by the National Park Service.

The membership of the Yosemite Valley Highway Association is made up of prominent citizens from all portions of California.
